Same Old Serpent- Great New Look and Feel!

Unless you have been living under a rock... No doubt you have heard of the Law of Attraction and other such “new” secrets that promise you how you, too, can have everything you want by just by thinking...

The Bible tells us:

“Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.” 2 Thessalonians 2: 5-12

A truly (spiritually) awake, and alert Messianic Jew or Judeo-Christian is wise enough to simply avoid getting caught up in such an obviously “new-age” philosophy. How so?

Pondering all that he had seen and done, and all the wisdom that he had asked for and had received from God, King Solomon came to a profound Eternal Truth:

"No, there is nothing new under the sun".

Whatever was always will be, and that which will be, always has been.

Though humanity is infamously clever in coming with new “angles and spins” on just about everything... At the core level, things are as the were in the days of King Solomon.

✓ Whereas he might of used an abacus for complex calculations; we use a computer.
Where he might of used a carrier bird or horseback to deliver a message, we use a computer (and snail mail, when all else fails ;~).

At the core level, however, we are still seeking the very same answers that King Solomon and the people of his time - the people of All Time - are and will continue to ask.

Therefore, the entire “new age philosophy” is just as dipped in Wrong Sauce, as it ever was.

Naturally, this includes the Law of Attraction, as presented in the Mass Media (including the Web)... Until now.

Three Biblical Prerequisites

The Bible clearly sets out three prerequisites, that are vital for us to understand how to receive blessings from God.

In Jerusalem, a man who had been ill for 38 years, was at healing pools in Bethesda. Jesus asked him a rather strange question: “Do you want to be well?”. The man told the Lord that he had no one to help him.

“Get up and walk.” commanded the Lord, and the man was healed. Note that Jesus didn’t ask the man if he was “tired of” being frail, ill, unable to provide for himself.

He asked if the man wanted to be well. Also duly note that the sick man had to:

✓ Admit he desired healing (that he was truly ready, in his own heart),
✓ Act on the Lord’s command (as likened to a Soldier, who does not question their Commanding Officer’s order),
✓ Believe he had been healed (to give profound thanks, knowing his healing is complete- No strings attached).

It is much the same as the “Be-Do-Have Principle”, but it applies to everything else.

Using weight loss as an example, if you want to be thin, you have to do what thin people do (i.e. exercise, not focus on their weight, eat smaller amounts of food etc.); then you will have what they have.

It is all about focus.
Bear in Mind:

It is these exact same three prerequisites apply to EVERYTHING that you deeply wish for (the desires of your heart) - not for just healing; Financial Abundance, Spiritual Growth, everything...

And that:

➢ Whatsoever you focus on, expands.

Take for example, numerous studies on a particular phenomena. One that I found particularly intriguing, is that there were two groups of basketball players.

The experiment involved the “free throw” line (the three point line).

One group was to practice, as per usual; whereas the other group participated in very little physical practice, and was instead instructed to go through the practice purely in their minds.

The group that used acute creative visualization and mental focus did overall as well as (and in specific individual cases, even better than) the group that practiced as normal.

If what they focused on (the group instructed to practice only in their mind) did not expand; then the results would not have shown such a startling discovery.

➢ Everything that exists within the known Universe is either matter or frequency (vibrations); and all matter vibrates at a specific frequency (and like always vibrates as like).

Furthermore, a vibrating body or object will cause another nearby body or object to vibrate at the same frequency (called resonance- like things always vibrate at the same rate)

For example, a tuning fork will vibrate another tuning fork nearby it; or how a speaker will make certain objects (like a window, or vase) vibrate a certain frequencies:

✓ Black Hills gold vibrates the same as white gold;

✓ A Herkimer diamond vibrates the same as an African diamond, etc.
That means gold is gold (no matter what it's color), and a diamond is a diamond (no matter where it is mined).

- A thought, once conceived and believed (even if in fear, or doubt as to the thought's possibility/probability) becomes a form.

Not a real and living “thing”, verbatim; but every bit as “living” as fire and lightning.

For example, you think to yourself you're hungry. You go to the cupboard, pull out a can of ravioli, and proceed to heat them up.

Had you not given strong consideration to the fact that you were hungry (and acted upon that thought); nice hot, steaming ravioli would not have manifested.

Remember: The same fire or electricity that can cook your dinner and provide you with comfort (light and warmth), can just as easily kill you. Which is to say that energy is neither good nor evil; thinking makes it so.

- As with all forms of energy- Thought is neither created, nor destroyed (it also simply just changes states).

Did you ever have an idea for an invention or a project, and discovered one day, thereafter, that your very same idea had actually been brought to market?

Thomas Alvin Edison had a specific thought that was so focused it took him nearly a thousand trials to perfect the common household light bulb.

Henry Ford had a thought so intense, that merely being able to build a car (a true marvel, at the time) just wasn't good enough. He envisioned (what is now today) a common robotic assembly line.

Manifestation of Vision.

- Thought is vibronic energy that can be channeled into physical manifestation.

Just as the Lord spoke, and the Universe was ("In the beginning there was the word..." - Genesis); in the End Days, some will do miracles, greater than even Jesus the Christ, Himself (see below).

When the realization fully hits you... It will be like a multi-Gigawatt Power Station surge, with passionately excited lightning bolts racing through you!

To aid your Deeper Vision for yourself, whether it’s...

✓ Servanthood,
✓ Physical Health,
✓ Emotional Healing,
✓ Financial Freedom...

The first, is that (as True Believers) we must be good and faithful, humble servants; submitting to His perfect will and desire:

"And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth us: and if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him." 1 John 3: 22; 5: 14,15

Consider This:

➤ Do you (struggle to) keep the Lord’s commandments?

➤ Are you happy with the (quality of) life that you have?

➤ Are your thoughts, words, and deeds pleasing in His sight?

➤ Are you struggling with the intensely strenuous burden of unconfessed sin (including pent-up hostility or bitterness within any relationships) in any areas of your life?

The Bible has a lot to say about this:

"But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself.

Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.”
Note: the above verse goes hand in hand with another verse where the Lord commands us to “fret not”.

“Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof” would be the modern-day equivalent of saying something along the lines of “Why worry about tomorrow? Today has plenty enough of it’s own troubles.”

Whether you are a devout Christian, newly baptized, or have not yet committed...

Worrying about tomorrow (or worse yet... living in the past) is a tremendous waste of the present; as there is no profit, nor glory in it.

“Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.”

Does that mean is all we have to do is ask and we will get everything we want? Of course not (see below). The Scriptures go on further to say...

“Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.” Matthew 6: 33,34; 7: 7-12

Here, the Lord is commanding His to act exactly unto others as we wish done unto ourselves. This naturally applies to the good, the bad, and the ugly (as well as those we are attracted to and like).... Hence the adage “Be careful of what you wish for”.

Have you ever been all fired up in your mind, and put an incredibly congruent amount of pure focus (coupled with zero doubt) into some nasty event that (to no surprise) ended up manifesting <head sadly shaking- “I just knew it...”>?

✓ Find a True Believer that you are comfortable with.

And no, it does not have to be a Minister, or Reverend... whomever is a True Believer that you are at ease with. Ideally, it should be a same-gender Accountability Partner.
Remember that not all self-professed “Christians” actually are. In these End Days, there are countless “wolves in sheep’s clothing”.

- Maintain at least once or twice a week, an accountability gathering with your Brother or Sister in the Lord (outside of typical Church gatherings- Perhaps a private Prayer Meeting, or Bible Study).

- Get any and all unconfessed sin out of your being- and REALLY give it to Him

Remember to unconditionally forgive yourself, as well as make peace (where at all possible) with those whom you have wronged: Make peace in all areas of your life.

Even if it means writing them down and burning them (as a symbolic offering)... Do what you need to do to get it out.

Remember: Energy is only changes to a different state or vibration.

We are thus commanded by the Lord Christ:

"Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: but I say unto you-

That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee; leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.”

Matthew 5: 21-24

It is especially important to observe and recognize anger modalities early on (and all the potential words that are said in anger), and how long-term detrimental they can be.

For example, there have been studies of cancer patients by ministers. In every case they studied, they found aught (anger, disappointment and unforgiveness) in their life. Once the person recognized this and repented, they began to get better.

Notice how the Lord says “first be reconciled to thy brother” ... “and then come and offer thy gift”? The same applies to receiving the Lord’s blessings, as well.
Biblically Manifesting the Desires of Your Heart

The difficulty in manifesting the desires of our heart, as True Believers, almost always lies in at least one of three areas (if not actually all of them):

- Firstly, lack of glory for the Father, via the Son.

What this means, is that there can only be one driver, just as with a vehicle. If you are giving God all glory- You are denying Self (“Thy will be done”). If you are seeking after pleasures of the flesh- You are denying God (“The wages of sin is death”).

"If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father’s commandments, and abide in his love.

These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.” John 15: 7-11, 16

Ask yourself…

“Do my thoughts, words and deeds seek to constantly glorify the Father through the Son; or do they seek to glorify my flesh?”

Often, we give little attention to consciously monitoring our thoughts, words, and deeds. Like an unkept lawn (where a dandelion pops up here and there)- Wait for a good rain and a few days later... Voila! The yard is awash in dandelions.

So it is with unconfessed sin.

When manifesting the desires of your heart, you must consciously guard your heart at all times (and avoid allowing unconfessed sin and aught build up).
Secondly, double-mindedness.

Double-mindedness is the ancient term for what we call “wishy-washy”... to vacillate between doubt, indecision, unconfessed sin, aught (angst), or unworthiness.

The Civil War is a prime example of double-mindedness (as “a house divided against itself will fall”). What do you think would have happened if another country decided to attack America, while they were fighting amongst themselves?!?

Here's what the Bible teaches us:

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering: for he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways."

If you are setting out to manifest certain things, events or relationships in your life, and you are experiencing incongruence in your life, which can include...

- Harboring (even a remotest hint of) doubt,
- Unconfessed sin (including pent-up anger and hostility),
- Feeling that you are not worthy of your own manifestations (deep down in your heart, for whatever reason)...

Then you are displaying traits of double-mindedness, and very surely you can expect to end up even more miserable than you already are. Unless, you come to the Absolute Realization that...

Congruency - on all levels of your life (mental, emotional, spiritual, and physical)- is the Name of the Game. The Greeks express this succinctly as “Know Thyself”.

For you see, anything short of Complete Congruency, and you are setting yourself up for failure (a statistical certainty, clearly illustrated - in literally thousands of different ways - throughout the Scriptures).

It is also very important to note: While your faith in the Lord may be unquestionably solid, your works must demonstrate and reflect your faith. For the Bible tells us:

“Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.” James 1: 5-8; 2: 17, 24-26

Here we are revealed two elements of the same Spiritual Dynamic- that:

✓ Faith without works is dead, and-

✓ Double-mindedness (like doubt) is a stealthy saboteur.

Also, it is important to note that the first thing mentioned in seeking, has nothing to do with Earthly possessions, more money, a mate, etc… but Wisdom. This is what triggers (and greatly expedites) manifestation of your heart's desires.

For you see, when you seek Wisdom; you are seeking the very Father Heart of God, Himself. This is the only way you will know His will for your life (not just “hope, guess, think, pray and wonder”).

The following Scriptures serve to demonstrate just how important diligently seeking Wisdom should be to you:

“A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels: to understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee; so that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding-

Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; if thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures; then shalt thou understand the fear of the Lord, and find the knowledge of God.”
Just because a person is “knowledgeable”, does not automatically grant them understanding. Why? Because anyone can jump on Google and instantly become “knowledgeable”.

Take electronics, for example. With no prior knowledge, you could do a search and read a how-to guide on soldering (and thereby be ‘knowledgeable’ in it).

However, until you’ve actually paid your dues; that does not mean that you have any real understanding (in the experience, expertise, or techniques of soldering).

Having knowledge (without understanding) is simply an ego-bloating spiritual waste; like the long-dead critter carrion floating, bloated, on a lake or pond surface.

Here’s what the Bible continues to reveal to us...

“For the Lord giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding. He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints. Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul; discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee”

The way that the mainstream media has (thus far) presented the Law of Attraction, makes it appear to be some “genie in the lamp” self-serving La La Land pop-cult religion (especially as portrayed in the Blockbuster Hit “The Secret”).

This is Satan doing some of his finest work to date: Guard your Heart.

The Scriptures go on to instruct us in the Eternal Benefits of diligently seeking Wisdom:

“To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things; who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness; who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked; whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words; which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.
For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead. None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it. But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.” Proverbs 1: 5-7; 2: Entire Chapter

So, as you can clearly see... When setting out to manifest a specific situation, relationship or object; the virtues of diligently seeking wisdom can not be extolled passionately enough.

In just the above Scriptures, wisdom:

- Protects you,
- Preserves you,
- Delivers you (from the people that seek to sabotage and use you).

Ultimately, seeking wisdom - diligently - will save you from all kinds of grief, and will open the doors to Blessed Opportunity (whereby enhancing your Whole Essence of being)...

Let alone the HUGE Eternal Benefit of altogether avoiding the reaping that which naturally follows glorification of flesh:

- Finally, asking in glorification of your flesh.

The Scriptures reveal a great deal concerning glorification of the flesh (diligently seeking fleshly pleasures, and instant gratification .vs the Truly Blessed things, situations and relationships that wisdom and understanding will open you to).

Any time we seek instant gratification (via glorification of the flesh), we invariably end up considerably more miserable than we started.

The chickens will come home to roost, whereby we still reap what we sow (some thirty, some sixty and some on hundredfold). Furthermore, if selfism is your goal; then God cannot work through you (by your own choosing).
That’s the real freewill that God gives us- to serve Him or the flesh. There is no other “freewill”; and to serve the flesh, is to effectually serve Satan.

The LoA Movement (as it has been propagated by the Mass Media) deftly specializes in how to deceive you into glorification of your flesh (with cunning prowess); whereby taking your eyes completely off of the Lord.

Worse yet- when you finally figure out that you were duped (and done used like a whore uses a john)... You will be severely worse off, than if you never dabbled in the whole mess, to begin with.

Talk about promoting a completely false humanistic view of getting what you want… No wonder so many naysayers shun the LoA (God’s nowhere to be found in the “equation”, obviously).

So, what does the Bible say is the remedy?

“From whence come wars and fightings among you? Come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members? Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. Submit yourselves therefore to God.

Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.” James 4: 1-3, 7, 8, 10

By diligently seeking His Wisdom, you-

✓ Defeat the Enemy,

✓ Avoid “asking amiss” altogether,

✓ Discover His perfect will for your life.
All Things Are Possible

In manifesting the desires of our hearts, we can look forward (with eager anticipation!) at what the Lord has promised us as His Chosen:

“And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove: and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." Matthew 17: 20; 18: 18-20; 21: 21-22

Though there has been much speculation as to why He specifically chose a mustard seed (a rather bitty seed); the best explanation that I've discovered, is that the mustard seed (though bitty), becomes a monstrously huge tree.

The important factor, is that your “mustard seed of faith” is unshakable, wherein doubt never enters into the equation; and that you “possess ye your soul in patience”, as He commands us.

The fig tree He made reference to, was one found without fruit, when He was hungry. Upon discovering that it bore no fruit, He cursed it, and it died and withered instantly.

Needless to say, his Apostles were just a wee bit amazed.
So, could an individual actually command a mountain to jump into the ocean (and it would obey)? Well, I suppose that depends on how close to the Coast you are. ;-D

Seriously, though; if you were single-minded in your endeavor, and knew that it would be found pleasing to Him, then yes- All things are possible. It is interesting to note that what we bind and loose on Earth, is likewise bound and loosed in Heaven.

This would obviously include thoughts, words and actions (“wishes”) of ill-repute toward another- Which is another excellent reason to hook up with a spiritual Accountability Partner.

Also, in the above Scriptures, we see the undeniable importance for (what I call) a Biblical Mastermind Group (which can - and often does - comprise of just two or three like-minded individuals gathered).

As with any type of Mastermind Group, it is critical that the individuals you invite are whole-heartedly after the same thing (outcome or manifestation, if you will) as you are.

It is definitely a plus if their faith in the Lord is at least as strong as your own (or stronger), albeit not necessary. There is a lot to be said for encouraging and supporting another Brother or Sister, to a deeper understanding in the Faith.

It is also prudent to consider the not-so-obvious “why’s” of that which you and one or two others “shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask”.

Notice the He says “as touching”- Not just merely agreeing.

There is a Scripture in Matthew concerning a woman who had a bleeding problem for several years, and no modern medicine could help her.

She knew that if she could but touch the Messiah's robe; that she'd be instantly healed- and was.

As a matter of fact, Christ stopped, and asked His Apostles who touched Him.

As there were many people milling all about, the response was basically “any number of people”. He was deliberate in wanting to know who touched Him.

The woman (who was understandably scared to death) finally confessed up. The Lord told her that her faith had healed her.

Like a capacitor, the Lord was instantly and powerfully discharged (and felt the healing energy go out of Him). That is the same effect that two or three gathered in His Name come together and live out their faith (by works in One Accord).

When two or three True Believers unite in one accord, a whole different magnitude of movement occurs at a completely unseen (spiritual) level...

Do you find this beyond exciting, to say the least?!?

Finally, in considering the “why’s and wherefore’s ” of given any particular outcome/manifestation… It is important to keep the following Scriptures close to your heart:

“Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.”

Matthew 6: 19-21
The Substance of Things Hoped For

Modern definition of “believe”:

1. to have confidence in the truth, the existence, or the reliability of something, although without absolute proof that one is right in doing so: Only if one believes in something can one act purposefully.

Biblical translation of “believe”:

To trust in, cling to and rely on.

“I believe it is going to rain today” is not at all the same as “I believe in God”. So from this point forward; as you see the word faith or believe (as referred to in the Scriptures), it means the same as the unwavering faith spoken of in James:

To whole-heartedly trust in, cling to and rely on whatever it is that you “believe in”.

According to Scripture, many will say “Lord, Lord”, and He’ll reply:

“Away from me; I know you not”.

Mind you, these are supposed “believers” in Christ. Like the Pharisees of His day, these quasi-believers are as whitewashed tombstones.

This is why it is Absolutely Critical for you to discern the Universe of Difference between the modern-day definition vs the Biblical translation of the word “believe”.

That said...

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good report. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.” Hebrews 11: 1-6

"And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any; that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.” Mark 11: 22, 24-26

"It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom. The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.” Proverbs 10: 23-25

"And Jabez was more honorable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, Because I bare him with sorrow.

And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that thou wouldest bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that thine hand might be with me, and that thou wouldest keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me!

And God granted him that which he requested.” 1 Chronicles 4: 9, 10
Greater Works than These?!?

"Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip?

He that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father?

Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works’ sake.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it."

John 14: 8-14

This (imho) shows the greatest Untapped Potential for two or three True Believers in the Lord.

And though we certainly not limited to this number, it is better to have only two or three in One Accord; than two or three dozen or hundred double-minded individuals.

The ramifications of the above Scriptures makes my mere mortal mind reel in all of the possibilities...

For you see, Satan is not a creator, but rather an imitator.

If you were to look closely at Wicca, or Celtic Witchcraft, you’d definitely see far more Biblical similarities, than not.

The Witches have their covens for this reason (amongst others); except they draw their power of a created being, rather than the Author and Finisher of Faith, Himself.
Nevertheless, the doctrine in coming together, unified, and of one accord creates a fourth-dimensional “Super Synergy” that is overwhelmingly exciting.

Give strong thought to this, as you either create or participate in a tightly-integrated Biblical Mastermind Group.
